

T&C's - Safety guidelines and site rules

The organisers want you to have a fantastic time and magical adventure. Here are a few things to remember to make sure that everyone has a great time.

- Enchanted Christmas is an outdoor event, set in a woods and parklands. You need to be aware that there are natural hazards such as tree stumps, uneven ground, muddy conditions and a lake. The event is completely accessible and able to accommodate wheelchair users and for those pushing buggies. The
- Your site guide will issue you with safety instructions on how to approach and feed the deer. Please do observe these for the safety of yourselves but also to protect the animals in their own environment. We would also ask that you take away any litter to ensure the animals are not impacted by this event. There will be antibacterial gel available around the site and also with your guide, please use this and ensure your children are instructed to do so after touching or feeding the deer.
- You will not be able to bring pushchairs into Mrs Christmas they will need to be left outside the bandstand area, at your own risk.
- Please make sure you wear suitable warm clothing including hats, gloves and wellies or boots.
- You should note that the gift the child receives from Santa may contain small parts therefore adult supervision is needed at all times.
- There is a no Smoking policy on the entire site.
- As the event is set in a deer park and children are in attendance we would ask ticket holders and all visitors not to bring dogs with them to the site. However, please let us know at the time of booking if you need to bring assistance dogs onsite.
- The organiser accepts no responsibility whatsoever for loss or damage to, or theft of any personal items taken onto or left in any area in or around the site or car park.
- To ensure the enjoyment of everyone taking part in these activities you must observe all notices and rules posted around the area.
- Please use the facilities in a manner that ensures your safety and that of other users.
- The management reserves the right to refuse admission or ask you to leave if you do not abide by these terms and conditions, or appear under the influence of alcohol or drugs.
- By purchasing your ticket and taking part in the activities you are agreeing that you have read and understand the rules and the terms and conditions set out and understand that all members of your party, including any minor, does so entirely at your own and their own risk and that you are responsible for ensuring that all in your party comply with all applicable rules.
